The Creator's constant call to his many creatures lost on the streets of the world.

My God, King of the Universe, have mercy, forgive these children of yours, love them. We all want to adore you Abba and give you all our love.

«Here I come to you, the Lord of the Universe, the God who created everything and bent everything to his will. All creation submitted to Me, and I am its King.

Children, in Heaven you have a Father who loves you, return to Me, do not underestimate my call. I call you all the time, but you, as ungrateful children you are, prefer to walk the streets of the world polluted by evil. It leads you to defeat and eternal evil. Gather among yourselves, sing to Me, offer Me all your zeal, devotion with due reverence and all that follows.

You must pray, raise your arms to Heaven and say: Thank you Father».

Thank you God that you have such a deep bond with your creatures. By watching over them you expand your wonderful gift, that of always placing your Peace in our hearts. A Peace that the world does not give, because it does not know, being made of goodness, respect and love. Father, call back to You your lost creatures who wander aimlessly, lost among many similar ones.

«I Jesus tell you: Offer your hands to these children of mine, raise them up from the mud in which they find themselves with your prayers. The love of your work of charity done with a simple heart, like that of a child. So you will have formed a treasure on Earth that you will take to Heaven. My door will be open for all of you, when you will be in my Divine Presence. You will hear a just sentence for having worked and expanded good on Earth.

The God of the Universe as I am I will tell you:

"Come good and faithful servant to my command, you have prepared an eternity of true eternal joy".

And now beloved daughter of my Sacred Heart, your Jesus King of Mercy blesses you, together with all those children who will read this Missive from Heaven. The Most Holy Trinity. The Amen».
