«Daughter I have to talk to you».

Lord, to me? I'm so tiny.

«Daughter I have to talk to you».

Father here I am to you, sweet Beloved, I come to listen with Faith to your Word of Truth and Light, which is vivid in the world.

«... But many of my children no longer recognize it, having sunk into the world of darkness, where there is only hatred and death in it. There is much confusion on Earth and my Boat is at the mercy of the high waves which want to sink it.

Where are you going wicked! In doing so you sink deeper and deeper into the depths. My people, my children where are you going?

You walk over a crowd of vipers waiting for the moment to inject you with their venom, which comes slowly but deadly for all eternity.

I am the One who raises up those who have fallen, those who are wounded, but woe to those who refuse my help.

Creatures where do you go without Me your Creator, your Defender. Come after Me with prayers and fasts, in Me is eternal salvation. You don't want to believe, you don't want to see or listen to my Words that after two thousand years I Jesus said to all Humanity.

The Earth will soon reject you, it is immersed in sin, there has never been a generation like this. In doing so you have put me aside, for Me Jesus there is no longer any place in your heart, which has become like stone.

I look at the Earth children and I tell you: it has become spectral. My creatures with their heads bowed, without ever raising their eyes to Heaven to thank God, the Wise One who created you out of Love, a Love that if you were able to understand for a moment, you would die for the immensity of It.

The earth will be shaken, beaten and turned, for many of my children it will be the end of their earthly existence. My arm is about to fall on all injustices, all heresies and, for many of you, it will be a great cry that cannot be filled. Only then will you understand that I Jesus am God and in that instant they will see the true Light which indicates the healthy path of life.

Remain in Me and I Jesus will not abandon you. Joy and Peace will return to your hearts and to the Earth, where once I will make all things new of It, because the former things will no longer exist.

And now beloved daughter and all children, existing in this time, I give you my blessing, go in Peace. The Most Holy Trinity. The Amen».
