What is better my adored Jesus, write you a love letter that has scent of Heaven, or recite the Holy Rosary? Go to Praise...

«Here I am to you my adored daughter, I Jesus come into your heart, your spirit unites with my Spirit. In simplicity you called Me and I came to meet you, My Tiny Flower, which already on earth smells of Heaven.

Yes, I see that you love Me with all of your being. You love all my creatures, you would like to do a ring around the rosie with them, taking each other by the hand and praising Me who am your King, King of Love who never abandons you.

The world suffers, all of humanity suffers. I have been abandoned by many creatures, they have forgotten, vilified and set Me aside. How many sins you are carrying with you, but in doing so you carry the guilt of sin, calling condemnation upon you.

Children, return to Me, don't you hear my heartfelt cry? Don't you hear my call?

The pleasures of the world have blinded you, but they don't make you happy, on the contrary, increasingly sad and confused.

Make your heart mild, humble and you will see full joy within you, the one that reaches your heart, to feel the joy of the Lord Jesus. Only then will you be able to live another life, the life of Christians, followers of Me Jesus Christ, your Lord.

And now I bless you beloved daughter and all those children who will read this Message of Love and Consolation. Go in my Peace. The Most Holy Trinity. The Amen».
