written by MIO PICCOLO FIORE | January 24th, 2023

«Beloved daughter of my Heart, I am Jesus, here near you, my spirit calls you, are you keeping Me fellowship? I am so thirsty for souls who adore Me with prayer. Beloved daughter of my Sacred Heart, do you love Me?».

*Lord You know that I love You, I adore You, You are the whole Universe for me. Go to Praise...

«Beloved daughter of my Heart, how precious is your love for Me Jesus.

If all the creatures of the Earth loved Me, aiming my Law of Love with their hearts, how much less blood would be shed, how many eyes full of tears would be less dried.

My people convert, believe again in Me, I am your Heavenly Father, the One who never abandons you, who gives you the joy of living in the midst of the storms of your life existence.

Children I love you so much!

I gave my Yes to my Father to redeem you from eternal sin, I am a Beggar of Love. I don't recognize you anymore. Without your Heavenly Father, remain steadfast on the path of holiness, which each of you must all undertake in order to gain life, true life. Everything ends sooner or later, you all have to give an account to Me, who am your Judge and your King.

I Jesus want to save you all, come to Me, ask and my Heart, where there is a furnace of Love in it, will let you enter to take all the lost Joy and Peace.

Time on Earth is short, the door of my Heart is always open, knock and It will be opened to you. I offer you my Hands and from them you take my regenerative strength for all human efforts. Detach yourself from the world, from all that is worldly, it corrupts your soul and then your body and mind. May prayer be the daily food for your spirit and walk looking to Heaven.

My Most Holy Mother and your Mother loves you all, with a Love that does not exist on Earth. Entrust your prayer requests to her, invoke her with all your heart. She is always ready to take you on her Immaculate Heart to bring you her tender consolation and her maternal embrace, covering you with her Sacred Mantle.

And now daughter loved by Me Jesus I give you my blessing and together with you all those of my children who will read these Words of Love, go in my Peace. The Most Holy Trinity. The Amen».
