«Write dear daughter, what I am about to tell you.

The Earth is contaminated by the sin of all men, they have stopped with their thoughts of coming to Me, who am the God of Love. Reconciliation I want, and harmony between you will return, as I have commanded you from always and forever. I am the only God in this Universe, but the madness of material good has taken over.

A painful event will take place on a global level, a battle between States, the whole world will be involved.

You turned your back on Me, you mocked Me and now your eyes won’t be enough to cry over what will happen. The Earth is about to reject you, it no longer responds to your simple needs of earthly life. Fight with yourself, examine your conscience, strengthen your weaknesses with virtues. Come to Me and I will cheer you up, making you feel my Love in your heart and only then will you understand that without Me you cannot do anything. With my Sanctifying Grace you will have Peace within you, that Peace that the world cannot give, because it is ephemeral and non-lasting.

> My children, try to build a better world, you must love each other, because only love between yourselves will you bring to Me when you return to my Kingdom of Love.

And now daughter loved by Me Jesus, I say to you: I bless all those children who will read these Words. All of you go into my Peace. The Most Holy Trinity. The Amen».
