*Light of my Lord, light the lamp that guides my steps on the path of life. Go to Praise...

«A new earth and a new sky opened to the eyes of all humanity. Wonder of wonders sank into the hearts of men, an explosion of open arms and praise towards the heaven. All creation was filled with shouts of jubilation:

Praise, praise, praise, glory, glory, glory to the Lord who was and who is to come!

Children of the Word incarnate in Virgin Mary's Womb, the Exalted among all women, wave your palms to He who Is, God of Armies, Wisdom of the Universe, All He Is, even before the Universe was He was.

An echo of voices rises, echoes above, chases from border to border and everyone bows to You who are the Love of all creation».
